
* Combined development exclusions: test-overlapping pixel hashes or filename groups, and development duplicates. Reason-specific counts are not separated. Groups are filename proxies, not verified patient identities.